Brief characterisation

EXISTENZ GASTRONOMIE is the magazine for gastronomic start-ups. The editorial focus is on information, ordinances and regulations on hygiene, but other topics in the field of gastronomic business start-ups are also dealt with in a practical manner. The magazine is handed out as part of the hygiene instruction procedure by the chambers of industry and commerce as well as by catering and hotel schools, vocational schools and trade offices. EXISTENZ GASTRONOMIE reaches the founders of a new business at a time when almost all purchase and investment decisions have not yet been made and thus ensures the desired success for your advertising.

Website

Next to the annual print edition of EXISTENZ Gastronomie, the website www.existenz-gastronomie.de also informs start-ups in the hospitality industry about the latest developments in the field of setting up a business in this sector.

For the most important current news and information, there is a news section on the homepage, which provides the latest “headlines” in a simple way. The homepage start page is therefore particularly eye-catching and ideally suited for banner advertising.

In addition, background and basic reports from various fields are presented in different topic categories. EXISTENZ Gastronomie online is thus not only a portal for start-ups, but also provides up-to-date information on the out-of-home market to other market participants.

Last but not least, the reader receives information about events ranging from supplier seminars, trade fairs, to association events. This means that users are always up to date on the latest training opportunities.
